

Travel Media Awards of Excellence:

Travel Media Story Award

This award category applies to any travel media story published provincially, nationally or internationally that features tourism in Ontario (including destinations, attractions, tourism products, tour operators, festivals and events, transportation providers, etc.). This could include published articles or featured stories in print, TV, radio or online (including blogs or vlogs). Advertising features are not eligible for nomination. The story must be between 500 and 1200 words.

One prize of C$1,000 is awarded to the winner. Please note that monetary awards will be divided evenly for multi-author entries.

Criteria

- Nominations must include the original article/photograph, or a clear legible copy of the article/photograph where the name and date of the article/photograph are clearly visible.
- If the article is more than one page in length, the pages must be numbered and the nominee's name and nomination category clearly shown on each page.
- Broadcast entries should be submitted in a viewable format, and all entries must be labelled with the network, air date, program name and the name of the station producer. Entries must include the staff/freelance journalist's name and address if applicable.
- Your written submission must answer the following:
  - a) Where did this story appear?
  - b) When did this story appear?
  - c) Provide details of the host publication/host site, including circulation and readership, or followers/likes (for online sites).
  - d) Please attach copies of the published article, to be submitted with the nomination.

Eligibility

1. Nominations are open to magazines, newspapers, independent writers and photographers, online journalists and television and radio broadcasters.
  2. Self-nomination and nomination of a third party is permitted.
  3. Nominees may not hold elected public office.
  4. OTMPC and its advertising agencies are not eligible for nomination.
  5. Initiatives where more than 50% of the budget was supported by OTMPC or utilized the OTMPC's ad agency of record (FCB/Fuel Advertising) are not eligible for nomination.
  6. There should be an identified person or persons with whom to associate the successful idea/operation/product (owner, operator, employee, committee chair, etc.)
  7. Nomination must be for activities that took place between January 2016 and December 2016.
- Please note that a separate nomination checklist must accompany each entry.
